Sugar Land Wine Voted “Best In Texas “

by consumers at 2005 Grapefest People’s Choice Competition

GRAPEVINE, TX...Circle S Vineyards was voted #1 by consumers at Grapefest 2005, the largest wine festival in the Southwest. Thirty-three (33) Texas wineries entered over 121 Texas wines in the People's Choice Wine Tasting Classic, the largest consumer judged wine competition in the United States, Sept. 8-11, in Grapevine, Texas. After four days of tasting and comparing, Circle S Vineyards received first place with the largest number of votes for their 2003 Sangiovese.

This 19th Annual Grapefest hosted more than 250,000 wine novices and connoisseurs. “Receiving the accolades of wine judges from across the country certainly fills me with pride,” said Circle S owner Dave Stacy. “But having thousands of wine drinking consumers vote us as best in the state is the ultimate in approval. The people from the state of Texas have spoken.”

Circle S Vineyards of Sugar Land, Texas continues to be singled out for awards and recognition at international, national and regional wine competitions. Including this People’s Choice award, Circle S Vineyards has received more than 30 awards for their 2003 vintage year wines, more than any winery in the State of Texas.

Wine festivals and competitions do the wine buying public a great favor. People wanting to purchase and drink the very best wines available often take advantage of the unbiased results of wine competitions to make their choices.

Circle S Vineyards is located just off the Southwest Freeway at Dairy Ashford in Sugar Land. The public is invited to visit Circle S for wine tastings and tours of the only working winery in the Houston area. Open Tuesday – Sunday.
